Each party shall pay its own attorney's fees and expenses incurred in connection with the arbitration proceedings; all other expenses of arbitration shall be equally divided between the parties, provided, however, that the arbitrator shall have the authority to assess any of the foregoing costs against any party acting in bad faith. Should either party bring any legal action (other than arbitration) against the other with respect to any claim required to be arbitrated under this agreement, then the other party shall be entitled to recover from such party all damages, cost, expenses, and attorney's fees incurred as a result of such action.
